FDOT Hosts Traditional and Virtual Public Hearings for Input on District Six's Five-Year Tentative Work Plan

Miami – More than $3 billion will be spent by the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) over the next five years to improve transportation infrastructure in Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties. The five-year plan, known as the Tentative Work Program, will be highlighted at the annual FDOT District Six Work Program Public Hearings.

The two public hearings in Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties, along with the simultaneous virtual public hearings, will provide an opportunity for the public to ask questions or make comments about the Work Program in general, as well as specific projects included in the plan.

Public Hearing in Miami-Dade County

Thursday, November 15, 2012 – 6 to 8 p.m.

FDOT District Six Auditorium

1000 NW 111 Avenue, Miami, FL 33172
