FDOT Hosted Greater Miami Expressway Agency Special Meeting

MIAMI, Fla. – Today, the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT), District Six, hosted a Special Meeting of the Greater Miami Expressway Agency. During the meeting, current board members, which include FDOT District Six Secretary, Stacy Miller, Marili Cancio, Rodolfo Pages, and Fatima Perez, were sworn in.

Board members discussed the next steps for the agency and there was general consensus by the board that it will follow the guidelines outlined in Part 1 of Chapter 348, F.S., which includes items like a nationwide search for staff and toll rebate program.

The Florida Department of Transportation's mission is to provide a safe transportation system that ensures the mobility of people and goods, enhances economic prosperity, and preserves the quality of the state's environment and communities. The department is committed to building a transportation system that not only fits the current needs of Florida's residents and visitors, but also enhances mobility throughout the state to accommodate its consistent and rapid growth. The unique nature of the Sunshine State and its year-round warm climate provides numerous opportunities to achieve the department's mission through multiple transportation modes including highways/streets, air, rail, sea, spaceports, transit, and the ever-expanding deployment of bicycle & pedestrian facilities
